ABOUT THE PRE-CONFERENCE DAY ON BEHAVIOR

The law pertaining to behaviorally-challenged students is ever-changing. NELI's Pre-Conference Day on Behavior will deliver training on some of the most critical issues regarding this complicated subject. Experienced attorneys and behavior specialists will bring you up to speed on topics including developing and operating campus threat assessment teams, the expulsion process and the services provided during the expulsion, understanding the time-out, seclusion and restraint laws, school resource officers and special education, and what is psychological first aid and the school's responsibility to provide it.

Sign up for the pre-conference alone or register for both the main and pre-conferences to save $35.00!

Who Should Attend

NELI conferences are open to all school personnel and anyone with an interest in the subject of school law. Whether you're in special education, general education, or school administration, the Pre-Conference Day on Behavior is ideal training for:

- Principals/Administrators
- Special Education Directors
- Special Education Personnel
- Assistant Superintendents
- Educational Diagnosticians
- 504 Personnel
- School Psychologists
- Related Service Providers
- Counselors
