DISABILITIES CONFERENCE

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

When you're in education, sometimes you have to think like a lawyer. A solid understanding of the laws governing special education will give you confidence in providing educational services to any child. Whether you're in general or special education, the 33rd Annual Disabilities Law Conference is the ideal way to get up to speed on disabilities law. At the Disabilities Conference, expert school law attorneys and educational professionals will discuss timely subjects including the continuum of placements and cognitive challenges, providing counseling under Senate Bill 12, addressing cultural and linguistic differences when conducting an evaluation, and a panel of TEA educational specialist will discuss how to best utilize TEA's systems alignment and support to ensure compliance.
